MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Class Deviation to the DFARS Regarding Sale and Exchange of Nonexcess Personal Property – 99-DEV-03

I hereby grant an Army-wide deviation to DFARS Subpart 217.70, Exchange of Personal Property, and DFARS solicitation provision 252.217-7002, Offering Property for Exchange. This deviation extends the same action taken previously as 97-DEV-4, that expired August 2, 1999.

Pursuant to this deviation, Army contracting activities are permitted to use the procedures described in the subparts above for the sale, as well as the exchange, of nonexcess personal property. The deviation implements the authority contained within the Department of Defense Materiel Management Regulation, DoD 4140.1-R, dated May 1998, subparagraph C6.2, Exchange or Sale of Nonexcess Personal Property.

This is a deviation within the definition of FAR 1.401(c). It should not have a significant effect beyond the internal operating procedures of the Army, or a significant cost or administrative impact on offerors or contractors. The amounts and types of nonexcess personal property that can now be sold are identical to that which could previously only be exchanged. The deviation will permit a wider range of companies to participate in Army procurements and should result in more advantageous business arrangements for the Army.

This deviation is available for use until September 30, 2001 or until the DFARS is appropriately amended. Its assigned deviation number 99-DEV-03 will be referenced in all actions taken pursuant to its authority. The deviation will not be published for public comment in the Federal Register since it is not expected to have a significant cost or administrative impact on offerors or contractors.

This action is taken pursuant to Test-Waiver Authority granted to me by the Director of Defense Procurement in her memorandum of October 5, 1998.

Kenneth J. Oscar
Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army
(Procurement)
